4. EDT Proposal

Presented by: Deb Jamison

As background, at the March 20, 2020 SCC meeting, the English Department requested a revision to the criteria granting exemptions for students writing the English Diagnostic Test (EDT). However, as a result of further meetings and discussions, the English Department has decided not to move forward with the proposal at this time in order to do some additional consultation and review.

Kyle Vuorinen moved and Pouyan Mahboubi seconded:

7. THEATRE

Musical Theatre Diploma

Presented by: Gillian Barber

The Musical Theatre Diploma program profile is being revised by removing MUS 125 and adding a 3-credit ENGL/COMM breadth elective course in the second term of first year. The changes will bring the program into compliance with the Ministry's requirements and will enable students to ladder into the Bachelor of Performing Arts.

Jennifer Nesselroad moved and Pascal Milelli seconded:

20/40 The revisions to the Musical Theatre Diploma program profile be recommended to Senate for approval.

CARRIED

8. INFORMATION ITEMS

(a) Accounting Assistant Diploma and Accounting Assistant Certificate; program profile order of courses and format revision

(b) *MUS 124 – course content revisions

9. BUSINESS ITEMS

No business items were presented.

There being no further business, the meeting was adjourned at 12:30 pm.
