COURSE PREREQUISITES
None.
Note: IDF 208 is equivalent to MOPA 220. Duplicate credit will not be granted for this course and MOPA 220.

STUDENT LEARNING OUTCOMES
General This course is an exploration of the function and practices of line producers and production managers in the entertainment industry.
Instructional Upon successful completion of this course the student will be able to: <ul style="list-style-type: none">* Identify the job duties of production managers and line producers;* Describe core production workflows relating to human resources, production resources, unions and guilds, and accounting;* Prepare industry standard production budgets;* Utilize industry standard production budgeting software;* Evaluate the production requirements of professional projects.

PROGRAM LEARNING OUTCOMES
Program Mission
The Indigenous Independent Digital Filmmaking program is designed for students who wish to gain an understanding of the basic functions of a film set and the professional practices of an industry-standard production. Areas of study include story development, pre-production, production, and post-production, with a focus on film crafts (camera, lighting, sound, grip, sets, props, etc.) technical skills and professional behaviour. Lecture, labs and project work combine to create a realistic and effective learning environment. The goal is to prepare students for an entry-level position in the professional motion picture industry and to provide a foundation for independent filmmaking.

Program Goals

Knowledge:

To introduce and provide access to current technologies and protocols of the motion picture production process from concept to completion at an introductory level.

To articulate, demonstrate and provide practice in the roles of various crew positions on a set.

Skills:

To enable students to apply appropriate management practices and procedures.

To encourage proper set etiquette and crew team-work.

Value:

To demonstrate and encourage industry standard professionalism throughout the filmmaking process.

PROGRAM STUDENT LEARNING OUTCOMES

Students successfully completing this program will:

1. Employ creative principles to develop a screenplay and critique scripts for production purposes;
2. Execute basic film directing skills, including conceiving a visual strategy for telling a story using motion picture arts, working actors and leading a film crew;
3. Design and produce sophisticated short independent films while employing protocols of professional film set procedures and advanced technical skills in a professional manner;
4. Schedule and budget the pre-production, production and post-production of short independent films;
5. Identify and describe major factors that influenced filmmaking over the course of cinema history.

OPERATIONAL DETAILS:
Capilano University has policies on Academic Appeals (including appeal of final grade), Student Conduct, Cheating and Plagiarism, Academic Probation and other educational issues. These and other policies are available on the University website.
ATTENDANCE:
Attendance will be taken daily and will form part of the final grade (See Evaluation Profile). When students are absent from class/production, their professionalism grade will be affected. Crew time sheets will be filled out each day during production. Lateness or unexplained absences will affect professionalism grade. Additionally, where lateness or unexplained absence prevents student from executing their designated crew responsibilities, term grade for that specific role will be impacted as well – up to and including overall course failure for substantially incomplete work.
PUNCTUALITY:
Punctuality is essential and forms part of the participation grade.
LATENESS:
All student work must be performed at the place and time authorized by the instructor. Lateness will only be accepted if prior approval for lateness has been given by the instructor.

CHEATING/PLAGIARISM:
Plagiarism is the presentation of another person's work or ideas as if they were one's own. Plagiarism is both dishonest and a rejection of the principles of scholarship. All students should familiarize themselves with the University Policy on Cheating and Plagiarism (See the University Website) as such behaviour can result in suspension from the University.
INCOMPLETE GRADES:
Grades of Incomplete "I" will be granted only if there is a valid reason for extending the evaluation deadline and if students have a reasonable chance of improving their grade to pass the course.
ENGLISH USAGE:
All written work submitted must use good academic English and follow the guidelines provided in the Capilano University Guide to Writing Assignments (available from the University Bookstore). It is the responsibility of students to proof-read all their writing for any grammatical, spelling and stylistic errors.
STUDIO/FILMING DISCIPLINE:
Students must be dressed appropriately. Wet and cold weather requires waterproof and warm clothing. Students are required to wear work clothes for technical and production sessions. Clothing may be subjected to dirt, paint and dust. Sturdy shoes are a must. No food or beverages are allowed on set during production activities and during technical classes.
COMPUTER COURSE REQUIREMENTS/RESPONSIBILITIES:
Students are expected to abide by the Statement of Appropriate Use of Information Technology Facilities and Services in any use of computers at the University. This statement can be obtained from your department, the Library, Computer Services or on the University website.
ELECTRONIC DEVICES/LAPTOPS:
Use of electronic devices is not allowed during class time, except at the discretion of the instructor.
COMPUTER LAB USAGE:
No food or beverages are allowed in the University's computer labs at any time. Students must not abuse internet privileges by visiting inappropriate or illegal websites. Intentionally opening and/or altering other students' projects will not be tolerated. Respect for other students' work is of utmost importance. Offences regarding the above will result in the "0" mark in the participation grade, and restricted access to facilities.
PARTICIPATION/PROFESSIONAL BEHAVIOUR:
Students are expected to demonstrate a professional attitude and behaviour towards their work, fellow-students, and their instructor. Students should demonstrate reliability, respect for and co-operation with colleagues. A willingness to work calmly and courteously under difficult conditions as well as a determination to achieve first-class work while meeting deadlines is necessary in this course. Students should have respect for equipment and systems, and a constructive response to criticism.
EMERGENCY PROCEDURES:
Students should familiarize themselves with emergency procedures posted in the classroom.

MOTION PICTURE ARTS STANDARDS FOR PROFESSIONAL BEHAVIOUR

Professional behaviour is essential in employment situations in the film and television industry. Professional behaviour, combined with professional technical and craft skills are the essential components that directors, producers, writers, actors, cinematographers, editors, agents, funders, broadcasters and distributors consider when deciding to build a team, hire, cast or green light a project. By acknowledging this, the Motion Picture Arts program fosters professional behaviour by evaluating each student according to these standards.

In all student projects, professional behaviour forms part of the mark, students will be given interim reports in order to adjust behaviour that needs improvement. These standards reflect the values of professionalism in the film and television industry and represent the expected standard of behaviour required of employment in the field.

The desired behaviours are described below as “outcomes” which are followed by a list of criteria against which the student’s behaviour will be measured.
